Object: Refund for unperformed services from Super driving school
And follow-up of your course in another driving school

Dear Madam,
Dear Sir,

You were identified as being a student who started a driving course in a school whose permit was suspended or revoked by the Société d'assurance automobile du Québec (SAAQ). Indeed, your former driving school, Super driving school, was revoked on August 6, 2015.

The Association québécoise des transports (AQTr) was mandated by the SAAQ to take in charge the Programme de reconnaissance des écoles de conduite. This is why, when one of the AQTr certified driving schools happens to be suspended, revoked or closed the AQTr is in charge of helping the students to get a refund for the unperformed services. Also, the AQTr will provide these students with a certificate (aka. attestation) to allow them to follow up the driving course in another certified school.

You will therefore find enclosed to this letter the following documents: a memo note describing the different steps to follow, a copy of the Security contract, a sworn statement and a questionnaire to sign.

Although this contract is expiring on the February 25th, 2016, the insurance company informed us that it would actually end sooner than that; more precisely on the November 6th, 2015, after the school's annulment. Even though you could submit your request until the November 6th, 2016, to the AQTr, you should do this as soon as possible. Also, be aware that you could be granted a lesser amount of money than submitted. For this purpose, please note that the more proofs of payments you bring along, the better it is.

Furthermore, we would like to inform you that the present letter as well as the enclosed documents – which are also available online at www.aqtr.qc.ca – do not constitute a legal notice. If you wish to seek legal advice in this process, you should get in touch with a legal expert.

Wishing you find this information useful in order to transfer to another driving school.

Best regards,

LT/sb

STUDENT'S MEMO

How to get a refund for unperformed services? How to resume your course in another driving school?

In order to help you in this process, the AQTr strongly recommends you to read the following information.

1. Procedure to follow to be granted a refund:

1. Send to us through email services.prec@aqtr.qc.ca the request documents or by mail to this address: 6666, rue Saint-Urbain (office 470), Montréal (Québec), H2S 3H1. That day, make sure to send along the following documents:

- A copy of both sides of your learner's licence. If you have not got any yet, a copy of your Medical Insurance Card ;
- A copy of the contract that you signed with the driving school;
- Any proof of payment you made to the driving school: i.e. cash withdrawals receipts, credit card statements, cheques copies, receipts, etc.;
- Student's follow-up sheet.
Please note that if you disagree with what was written down on this sheet, you should add to the following document a letter listing the different modules as well as the various in-car practices that you think to have followed or completed. Try to describe precisely the differences between them so that the AQTr can consider your point of view and assess the situation;
- The sworn statement which you signed in front of a sworn assessor.

Regarding the sworn statement;

- First, fill in the document completing all the required information (but without signing nor dating it);
- Then, go to any bank counter (i.e. Caisse Desjardins), to any arrondissement town hall or to any lawyers' office with the carefully filled in document, where you will therefore sign and date the document in the presence of the attorney or a sworn assessor.

2. The refund process will take place in accordance with these 3 steps :

Students' services

- The AQTr sends a final demand to the driving school to pay for the amount of money that is due. The AQTr will provide you with the refund in case the school denies the previous request.
- Indeed, if the school does not comply with the AQTr's demand, the AQTr will send collective indemnity request to Insurance Company of the driving school (see copy of the Security contract). Although this contract is expiring on the 25 of February 2016, the insurance company informed us that it would actually end sooner than that; more precisely 3 months after the school's closure date, thus on the 6th of November 2015. This means that the AQTr needs to send all the reimbursement demands at least on the 6th of November 2016 to the security company. Therefore, although you could submit your request until the 6th of November 2016 to the AQTr, you should do this as soon as possible. Afterwards, once the AQTr receives the security from the Insurance Company, we will send you a reimbursement cheque. However, keep in mind that due to the various delays described above, no cheque would be issued before the 1st of March 2017. Also, be aware that you could be granted a lesser amount of money than submitted.
- If by any chance, you are not provided with any refund, neither by the driving school nor by its insurance company, by the end of this process, you should ask for legal aid to the Small Claims Division Court of Quebec.

You will find all the useful information that you need at:

<http://www.justice.gouv.qc.ca/english/publications/generale/creance-a.htm>

On this website, you will also be able to access simplified documents to make a request for Small Claims.

You might as well seek help to the Court in Quebec in person or by phone:

E-mail: informations@justice.gouv.qc.ca

2. Steps to follow to resume your driving course in any other certified driving school

To follow up your training in any other AQTr certified driving school, you would need to show the certificate (also commonly known as “attestation”) illustrating the various theory modules and/or in-car sessions that you have already taken at your previous school. If you have not received the attestation yet and that you were part of a school that was suspended, revoked or closed voluntarily by the owner of the driving school you will receive one from the AQTr.

Send to us through email services.prec@aqtr.qc.ca the request documents or by mail to this address: 6666, rue Saint-Urbain (office 470), Montréal (Québec), H2S 3H1. That day make sure to send all the documents mentioned on page 1.

What should you do after receiving the certificate?

- Go online and have a look at the list of the AQTr certified driving school located in your area : www.aqtr.qc.ca;
- Go and enrol at a new driving school with the attestation from the AQTr. This paper will allow you to resume your course, since the driving school will be able to check exactly which theory or practical classes you still have to attend;
- Once you have succeeded the whole driving training, you will get another attestation from this driving school;
- Remember to bring along both attestations (i.e. the one from the AQTr and the one from the 2nd driving school) when you go to the SAAQ to take the final road test.
